I am a subscriber to Gastroenterology Nursing and I have a username and password that I use to access gastroenterologynursing.com

- On your iPad home screen, open the GN app from the icon
- You will see the message, “If you have already set up GN for your iPad, simply tap “Sign In” above to start accessing your issues. Or, set up your account.”
- Tap the “Sign In” button at the upper left using your username and password for gastroenterologynursing.com

I am a subscriber to Gastroenterology Nursing and I have my subscriber ID (hint: your subscriber ID is found on your print mailing label or the email confirmation you received when you subscribed)

- On your iPad home screen, open the GN app from the icon
- You will see the message, “If you have already set up GN for your iPad, simply tap “Sign In” above to start accessing your issues. Or, set up your account.”
- Tap the “Or, set up your account” link
- On the next screen, choose: I know my Subscriber ID
- When you tap “I know my Subscriber ID,” you will be prompted to enter your email address and subscriber ID
- Tap “Accept” on the End User License Agreement
- Once you are successfully registered, you will see a confirmation screen with instructions for starting to access your GN issues.

I don’t know my subscriber ID and I have not accessed the website gastroenterologynursing.com

- On your iPad home screen, open the GN app from the icon
- You will see the message, “If you have already set up GN for your iPad, simply tap “Sign In” above to start accessing your issues. Or, set up your account.”
- Tap the “Or, set up your account” link
- On the next screen, choose: I don’t know my ID
- When you tap “I don’t know my ID,” you will be prompted to enter your first and last name. A system lookup will be initiated, and if you are located as a valid member or subscriber, you will be prompted to go to the next step in registration
- Tap “Accept” on the End User License Agreement
- Once you are successfully registered, you will see a confirmation screen with instructions for starting to access your GN issues
