The mission of the International Society of Anaesthetic Pharmacology is to encourage scientific progress and publish fundamental advances in anesthetic pharmacology, sponsor high caliber professional meetings, promote high ethical and professional standards and identify unmet patient needs that can benefit from development in the field.