

Winter 2017 Volume 28.1

A Note from the Editor in Chief

I hope everyone in our global arena had very happy holidays. This new year brings new health care systems, a continued raise in plagiarism, and system/email security challenges. Please be vigilant with your personal information and email accounts.

Together, let's make 2017 and the 28th year of the journal GREAT!

The Journal of Craniofacial Surgery serves as a forum of communication for all those involved in craniofacial and maxillofacial surgery. Coverage ranges from practical aspects of craniofacial surgery to the basic science that underlies surgical practice. We want to thank you for
