

JOURNAL OF Addiction Medicine
The Official Journal of the American Society of Addiction Medicine

The Journal of Addiction Medicine is seeking to expand its cadre of manuscript reviewers. We are seeking reviewers with expertise in the following areas.

- Stimulants
- Psychiatric epidemiology
- Qualitative methodology
- Genetics
- Neurology
- Emerging substances
- Kratom
- Novel Psychoactive Substances
- Psychedelics
- New pharmaceutical treatments
- Toxicology
- Criminal justice and addiction medicine
- Machine Learning
- Pain and Palliative Care
- Adolescent Medicine
- Maternal Child Health
- Behavioral Addictions

Description of Reviewer Tasks:

- Receive manuscripts for blinded peer review
- Possible recommendations: reject, major revision, moderate revision, minor revision, accept
- Provide confidential comments to editor
- Provide constructive comments and suggestions to authors
- Follow reviewed manuscripts through revision process
- More resources for peer reviewers available at <https://www.editorialmanager.com/jam> and <https://wkauthorservices.editage.com/peer-reviewer-training-course/>

Prerequisites:

- Graduate Degree (e.g., MA, PhD, MD, DO, PsyD)
- Submission, revision, and acceptance of at least 2 manuscripts in a peer-reviewed journal

To Apply:

Please send a brief letter of interest, including experience as a reviewer and your areas of expertise. Please include a current CV and, if available, a media bio link. All application materials should be sent to pubs@asam.org. Please put "JAM Peer Reviewer" in the subject line. Unidentified applications may not be considered.