

Request for Applications Editor-in-Chief, Western Hemisphere JPGN Reports

The North American Society for Pediatric Gastroenterology and Nutrition (NASPGHAN) requests qualified members of the Society to apply for the position of Editor-in-Chief, Western Hemisphere, for JPGN Reports for the period of January 1, 2023 to December 31, 2027. The due date for this application is November 30, 2021.

JPGN Reports is the newly developed, peer reviewed, Open Access on line journal that is a companion journal to JPGN. JPGN is the original official publication of NASPGHAN and the European Society of Paediatric Gastroenterology, Hepatology and Nutrition (ESPGHAN). JPGN Reports is now the second official publication of NASPGHAN and ESPGHAN and provides a forum for exchange of information pertinent to the fields of gastroenterology, hepatology, and nutrition aimed to enhance the care of pediatric and young adult patients and for investigators to pursue related areas requiring further study. The journal fills a broad and inclusive role for publication of reports across the spectrum of clinical and translational research, from bench to public health, clinical study protocols, reports on scientific conferences and workshops, clinical reports of novel cases, and treatment opportunities in this field.

Brief Overview of Journal of Pediatric Gastroenterology and Nutrition Reports

JPGN Reports was developed by JPGN, NASPGHAN, and ESPGHAN leaderships in 2019-20. The ownership of the journal, and copyright on subsequently published issues, belongs to NASPGHAN and ESPGHAN, with Wolters-Kluwer (WK) as publisher.

JPGN Reports provides a forum for exchange of information pertinent to the fields of gastroenterology, hepatology, pancreatology, and nutrition aimed to enhance the care of pediatric and young adult patients and for investigators to pursue related areas requiring further study. JPGN Reports publishes novel case reports, images and videos, original articles, clinical trials protocols, review articles, short communications, letters to the editor, selected meeting proceedings, editorials and commentaries on all aspects of clinical and translational research, educational, and public health issues in the area of pediatric gastroenterology, hepatology, pancreatology, and nutrition. JPGN Reports also welcomes novel exploratory hypothesis-generating research, qualitative and quantitative epidemiologic research, studies of novel mechanisms and methodologies including public health interventions, hypothesis-generating small studies, methods papers, and translational research applicable for pediatric pathogenesis and physiology in health and disease.

JPGN Reports is open access and available online without cost to the reader; authors pay to publish in the journal. A compendium of published articles in the preceding three months is published online each quarter. JPGN Reports currently has no impact factor; however after sufficient articles have been published and cited, an application for PubMed acceptance and an impact factor will be submitted. JPGN Reports has a dedicated website at jpgnreports.org.
