What content is Medicine® looking for in the area of ophthalmology?
“We are interested in studies that are related to human health that includes epidemiological, biochemical, molecular, immunological, and computational studies.”

What advice would you give to researchers looking to publish their work in Medicine®?
“I advise new researchers the following:
1. Do not give up after the first few unaccepted trials. Keep on.
2. Prepare a good volume of the material so you will have excellent results for your research.
3. Take your time to achieve your research, do not be in a hurry.
4. Group work or team work will facilitate your work and increase the volume also.
5. Do not be minded by the recent advances only. Remember, you can change an old fact with new research on an old item.
6. Start now.”
