Complete your name, email, password, and specialty questions and click 'create my account.'

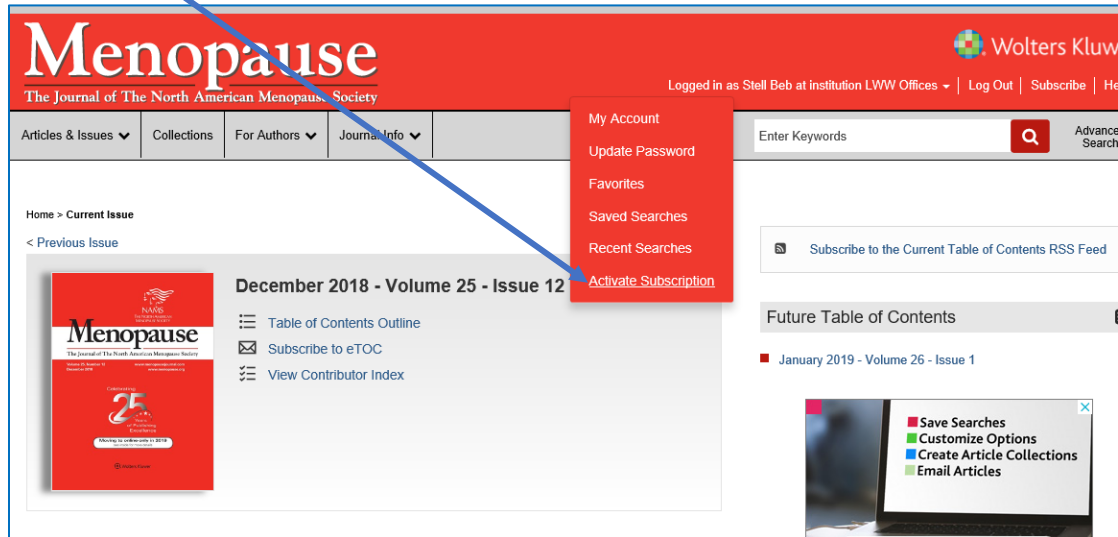

After you click 'create my account' you will see the below action item to verify your user account by checking your email and clicking on the verify link.

The screenshot shows the Menopause journal website's registration confirmation page. At the top, the journal title "Menopause" is displayed in a large, white serif font on a red background, with the subtitle "The Journal of The North American Menopause Society" below it. The Wolters Kluwer logo is in the top right corner. A navigation bar includes "Articles & Issues", "Collections", "For Authors", and "Journal Info", along with a search bar and "Advanced Search". A yellow banner at the top of the main content area reads: "Be sure to verify your user account in the next 24 hours, by checking your email and clicking the 'verify' link." Below this, a "Thanks for registering!" section features a thumbnail of the journal cover and text explaining the benefits of registration, such as saving favorite articles and receiving email alerts. A "Browse Journal Content" section lists options to read the current issue, browse previous issues, or learn about the journal publisher. At the bottom, two call-to-action boxes are present: "Find out about new issues with eTOC alerts" and "Read new articles with Published Ahead of Print alerts", each with an icon of an envelope and a "Get" button.

Verify your user account by checking your email account and clicking 'yes, please verify my account.'

The screenshot shows the Menopause journal website's account verification page. At the top, a message reads: "Please verify that you created a user account on Menopause". The journal title "Menopause" and subtitle are displayed in the header. A navigation bar includes "Current Issue", "Previous Articles & Issues", "About the Journal", and "Search Journal". The main content area features a "Thanks for registering on the Menopause website!" section with a journal cover thumbnail. It instructs the user to complete registration by verifying their email account and provides a prominent "Yes, please verify my account" button. A warning states: "If you don't verify account within 24 hours, it will be deleted." Below this, a section titled "As a registered user, you can:" lists two benefits: "Save and organize articles and videos" (with a folder icon) and "View your search history" (with a magnifying glass icon).
