

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF: *Techniques in Shoulder & Elbow Surgery

Wolters Kluwer is seeking nominations and applications for the position of Editor-In-Chief for the Techniques in Shoulder & Elbow Surgery journal. Techniques in Shoulder & Elbow Surgery is a quarterly, peer-reviewed journal that advances surgical procedures worldwide, guides the reader into the operating room, and supplies step-by-step details of exciting and advanced techniques. The position of Editor-In-Chief is a prestigious and honored role recognizing an individual's proven abilities and his/her knowledge within the industry. It also carries with it much responsibility for fulfillment of an important part of the Journal's obligations to its readers and the orthopaedic community as a whole.

ESSENTIAL RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provide a strong editorial vision representative of the goals of the Journal.
- Be responsible for the scientific content of the journal, maintaining and enhancing the journal's high standards for authoritative, innovative, and top-quality research and techniques.
- Monitor and ensure the fairness, timeliness, thoroughness, and civility of the peer-review editorial process.
- Select and lead an esteemed international Editorial Board whose knowledge base represents the topics covered in the Editorial Mission of the Journal.
- Collaborate with the Publisher and develop strategies to advance high-quality content in online formats valued by web traffic and readership scores.
- Work with colleagues, researchers and quality societies to form affiliations to further surgical techniques and research.
- Champion the Journal at professional meetings, workshops, and other appropriate forums.
- Ensure proper manuscript flow to guarantee on-time publication, soliciting content and/or editorials as appropriate.
- Cultivate strategies to promote the journal's mission and digital presence.
- Use digital elements and social media to project the journal's reach and readership.
- Make final publishing decisions on submitted manuscripts.

CANDIDATE QUALIFICATIONS

Candidates should be acknowledged as experts and thought leaders in orthopaedic surgery and techniques with a broad background in basic science and clinical medicine. Candidates should possess strong leadership qualities, intellectual vision, organizational abilities, and experience relevant to editing a leading medical journal. Candidates must possess excellent communication, organizational and interpersonal skills, and a wide network of professional contacts. The Editor-in-Chief and journal operations are supported by Wolters Kluwer.

TERM

The new Editor-in-Chief will officially assume responsibility for the Journal on January 1, 2021, but must be prepared to help facilitate the editorial transition beginning on July 10, 2020. The hired candidate will receive compensation. The initial term is 2-years, with the possibility of an extension.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Interested individuals should submit an application package that includes:

A succinct letter of interest and qualifications, a current curriculum vitae, three references with contact details, a vision statement of 750 words or less for the next two years of publication of Techniques in Shoulder & Elbow Surgery. All applications must be received by June 26, 2020.

Only complete application packages should be sent to:
